Better Times A-Coming

Opener: Circle Left.
Well the cows went dry, the hens don't lay, there's no place I can borrow,
Give the landlord all the news and the rent comes due tomorrow,
Boys Star Right once inside, keep it,
Allemande your corner girl and Weave around the keep it.
Lots of money in the bank, they say that's where they keep it.
Swing that girl pretty little doll and Promenade, take it.
So pick away on the old banjo; keep that guitar strumming.
Put more water in the soup; there's better times a-coming.

Figure:
Heads (Sides) Box the Gnat and then you Slide Thru.
Slide Thru once again, Reverse your Flutter Wheel.
Dixie Style to a wave, Balance in and out.
Boys Trade, Everybody Hinge and Walk and Dodge.
Wheel Around the girl you found, all Slide Thru.
Swing that girl, pretty little doll and Promenade, take it.
So pick away on the old banjo; keep that guitar strumming.
Put more water in the soup; there's better times a-coming.

Middle Break: Circle Left.
Well Mary Lou could pull a plow, if only I would let her.
Twice as strong as any ox, and she don't smell much better.
Boys Star Right once inside, keep it.
Allemande your corner girl and Weave around the keep it.
I didn't kiss that Mary Lou but once, and then I had to leave her .
Swing that girl pretty little doll and Promenade see her.
So pick away on the old banjo; keep that guitar strumming.
Put more water in the soup; there's better times a-coming.

Ending: Circle Left.
Well a man came by the other day, a-huntin' manual labor.
I told him I hadn't seen the guy, why don't he ask the neighbor.
Boys Star Right once inside, keep it.
Allemande your corner girl and Weave around the keep it.
So come on boys get your gals, and kick your heels up higher.
Swing that girl, pretty little doll and Promenade a little tighter.
So pick away on the old banjo; keep that guitar strumming.
Put more water in the soup; there's better times a-coming.
