

Learn a part of America's Heritage

Beginning Clogging Class

A lively dance from the Appalachian Mountains

WHAT 8-week class covering the basics of American Clog Dancing. A few simple dances will also be taught to both traditional and contemporary songs.

WHEN Starts August 4, 2021
Wednesday evenings 7:00 – 7:50 pm
Register ahead or at class on August 4

WHERE Danville Grange Hall, 743 Diablo Rd., Danville
From highway 680 exit Diablo Rd. & go 1/2 mile east

COST 8-week class: $64
Try out your first night at no obligation.
Pay only if you plan to continue the class.

WHO All ages, singles, families, couples are welcome. Kids under 13 should be accompanied by an adult.

HOW To confirm your attendance, send your name with your phone number or email address to Lois Elling (email and phone are below). You will be added to the class roster at that time. Registration may also be made at class on August 4. Payment is due by the second class.

SAFETY Masks will be required for those who are not completely vaccinated against Covid-19, and optional for others.

The class instructor is Lois Elling, who has been teaching clogging in the Bay Area for 45 years.

- No experience necessary
- No special shoes or clothes required
-

Sponsored by the Diablo Mountain Cloggers, 47 years in Contra Costa. This 8-week class is an introduction to clogging, and will be followed by a Beginner II class. For more information: Lois Elling (510) 278-8621 or Lois.Elling@pacbell.net

